SECTION C - DESCRIPTION/SPECIFICATIONS/WORK STATEMENT

STATEMENT OF WORK (SOW)

G4 Unit Set Modernization Branch (USMB)

27 March 03

1.0 INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

1.1.1. The USMB is the proponent for Unit Set Fielding (USF), Unit Set Readiness Reporting (USRR) and Unit Set Integrated Log Support (USILS) within G4. The CSA has stated that the Transformation Campaign Plan (TCP) is to be executed through USF. Current transformation management is System of System (SoS) based rather than an organization based effort. Transformation involves the integration and synchronization of supply, maintenance, training, and contracted support services. Each segment has constraints and opportunities that affect the Transformation Campaign Plan (TCP). The USMB will ensure G4 Transformation responsibilities and initiatives are aligned with the Secretary of the Army's priorities of winning the Global War on Terrorism (GWOT) and Transforming the Army through integrated, advanced logistics planning. The USMB directly supports these priorities by ensuring the synchronized execution of fielding sustainable units to fight and win the GWOT. USMB conducts analysis and integration of Modernization initiatives to ensure G4 Transformation Roles and Responsibilities are properly implemented. Using USILS Analysis and Logistics Transformation Task Force findings, USMB identifies cost savings through improved commonality of parts and increased reliability. The Army Vision is People, Readiness and Transformation. USMB is tied into every aspect of this Vision by working on Manpower issues created by the rapid introduction of systems fielded in Unit Sets and by providing USRR on Stryker Brigade Combat Teams (SBCT) and execution Transformation via USF.

1.1.2. Contractor support is required to support Army Transformation and assist the G4 in meeting its Army Staff (ARSTAF) and Major Command (MACOM) generated requirements to support the Legacy, SBCT and Objective Force USF Program and to give the G4 the capability to proactively meet the Army's USF mission. It is also needed to enable G4 to satisfy its requirement as an integral part of the Army's USF team. The USF program is fully under way and being implemented into the Legacy Forces, Stryker Brigade Combat Teams (SBCT) and will continue well into the time of the fielding of the Objective Force. Contractor support is required to assist the G4 efforts in reviewing Army G4, ODCSLOG regulations and policy to identify the USF processes, as they exist today vice what is documented in regulations and policy. Contractor support is required to support the USMB mission in assessing, identifying and recommending solutions to critical shortfalls in each axis of Army Logistics Transformation. To provide analysis and integration of Army Modernization and Transformation initiatives as they apply to USF and provide G4 Unit Set ILS and Readiness Reporting capability

2.0 SCOPE AND REQUIREMENTS

2.1.1 The contractor shall provide independent analyses, simulations, technological assessments; and perform other related tasks in systems definition, experiments, technology demonstration, system development, and production and fielding. The contractor shall analyze and assess the adequacy, timeliness, and cost effectiveness of work performed by other contractors. The contractor shall identify issues and shall formulate and provide to the Government alternatives for issue resolution. The contractor shall have a working knowledge of the Department of Defense (DoD) 5000 acquisition milestone review process and shall be knowledgeable of initiatives in the acquisition arena.

2.1.2 The contractor shall provide expert analytical support by assisting the G4 in meeting its Deputy Chief of Staff for Programs (DCSPRO/G-8) and Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations (DCSOPS/G-3) generated requirement to support the USF Program. The contractor shall be responsible for identifying, tracking, monitoring, and providing coordination for G4 USF, USRR and USILS requirements. The contractor shall work with other Department of the Army (DA) agencies to coordinate G4 USF, USRR and USILS related tasks and responsibilities. Additionally, the contractor shall coordinate with Army MACOMs when required to support G4 USF, USRR and USILS objectives.

2.1.3 The contractor shall assist the G4 in reviewing and identifying Army G4/ODCSLOG regulations and policies. Identify the delta between what is currently documented in regulations and policy and the USF processes. Will conduct analysis and provide recommendations to G4 for changes to the regulations and policies. Additionally, as the Army executes USF the contractor will capture and incorporate lessons learned and review regulations and policies to ensure increased relevance and application.

2.1.4 The contractor shall assist the G4 in developing a process map that documents the existing roles, responsibilities, timelines, and interactions. This review will extend beyond G4 to include the roles of Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology (ASA (ALT)) and Army Materiel Command (AMC) as well as other Army staff activities. Using experience, technology and lessons learned, the contractor shall assist the G4 in forming a USMB Execution Strategy that outlines how G4 will carry out USF, USRR and USILS roles and responsibilities.

2.1.5 The contractor shall develop for the G4 recommendations for the implementation of procedures to actively support the Army's USF program for the remaining USF activities associated with the Legacy, SBCT and Objective Force. Proactively ensure that the G4 USMB roles and responsibilities are met. By communicating and coordinating with the network of personnel deployed throughout the Army, the contractor will work to identify, track, monitor and provide coordination to actively support the G4 USMB efforts in support of Army Transformation.

2.1.6 The contractor shall develop, with the use of computer-generated graphics, documents, spreadsheets, databases and web-based products, all types of official correspondence and create and maintain G4 USMB Website to track and strategically communicate the G4 USMB efforts.

2.1.7 The contractor shall assist in the planning and execution of G4 USMB roles and responsibilities as directed by the Unit Set Fielding Prime Directive (USFPD). Will work to execute and update the responsibilities indicated in the USFPD.

2.1.8 The contractor shall assist in the planning and execution of G4s USF Effective Dates (E-Dates) and Milestones as directed by the USFPD. The contractor shall assist G4 in working with other DA agencies and MACOMs to accomplish this effort. Shall work to execute and when needed, update the below mentioned E-dates and Milestones. The contractor shall develop a Unit Set Fielding Management Matrix (USFMM) to assist with this effort.

2.1.9 Attend various USF Conferences, Integrated Product Team (IPT) meetings, Rock Drills, Council of Colonels (CoCs), Video-Teleconferences, etc. for various members of the G4 USMB Chain of Command.

2.1.10 The contractor shall coordinate suspense's, taskers and events between/within the division and when required, serve as the G4 functional representative to manage, direct and coordinate internal and external activities of the G4 Director of Army Logistics - Plans, Operations and Readiness (DALO-PLR). The contractor shall assign projects and actions and distribute workload as directed within the division.
